

Geoff Giraffe and the Fudge

Geoff the giraffe was charging through the edge of the jungle on a journey when he suddenly found a huge village where they made strange fudge. He jumped for joy because fudge was his favourite food. He searched in his jacket for a jam jar so that he could take some fudge with him on the rest of his journey. Quietly, he jogged across the bridge and stole just a little orange flavoured fudge. Off he jumped with his prize. But what Geoff didn't realise was that the fudge was magic and when he tried to eat it the fudge would turn to jelly!
