Lesson 2 - The Great Fire of London Report

In this lesson, you are going to be a reporter and write a report about the Great Fire of London.

Using the newspaper report worksheet write the key facts you have learnt about The Great Fire of London.

Remember to include:

- A catchy headline
- Write three important facts
- A quote
- Include a picture

The Features of a Newspaper Report

LONDON'S BURNING

"The houses burnt so quickly, it was terrifying"

This is called the 'headline'. It is used to grab the reader's attention and make them want to read the report.

It is usually very short.

A quote is something that somebody has said.

Photograph or illustration of the event, or the people involved.
