What should Harold say?

After school one day Kiki and Derek went round to Harold's house to ask him if he was able to come out and play. Harold opened the door and Derek said, 'We're going down the park to play. Would you like to come?' And Harold said: [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.]

Harold asked his mum whether he could go out and play and she said he could. So he turned to Derek and said: [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.]

The three of them went down to the park which was just up the road from Harold's house. When they got to the entrance Kiki said, 'Do you think it would be all right if you two stayed here and I went off to the shops to get some sweets. Harold said: [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.]

Harold explained that it would be too dangerous for Kiki to go off into town where it was busy, especially as she would be all by herself. 'Anyway, we shouldn't be eating sweets so close to dinner time,' said Derek. So instead the three of them went into the park to play.

When they got to the swings Kiki noticed that there was a packet of sweets on the ground. She asked Harold whether it would be all right for her to pick up the sweets and try one and Harold said: [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.] because they wouldn't know where they'd been and could be dirty.

They played for a while at the park but it began to rain so they hurried back to Harold's house. 'Can we come and play a game in your house?' said Derek. Harold said: [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.]

His mum said it was ok and they went upstairs to play in Harold's room.

Kiki needed the toilet so she went into the bathroom. After she finished she saw what she thought was a packet of sweets on the bathroom shelf. She picked them up and took them into Harold's room. 'Harold,' she said, 'Are these sweets?' and Harold said: [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.] He explained that they were some medicine tablets that his mum used.

Derek pointed out that maybe they shouldn't have been left lying around and asked what Harold was going to do and Harold said: [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.]

He went downstairs and told his mum what they had found and she went up with him and picked up the tablets. 'I must have left these out earlier,' she said and put them back in the bathroom cabinet which was nice and high up. Now the medicines were out of reach and out of sight from Harold, Kiki and Derek.

Soon it was Harold's dinner time and Kiki and Derek had to go home. 'Harold would you and Kiki like to come and play round my house tomorrow?' asked Derek and Harold said, [Yes, No, I'll Ask or I'll Tell.]
