

Diwali Poetry

Read the first line of each couplet and use your knowledge of Diwali traditions to create a rhyming line.

Time to celebrate: Diwali is here!

A festival full of bright, shimmering lights,

Please take your time to make Rangoli

Celebrate with the best of all treats:

Offer a puja (some call it a prayer)

The great god Ganesh is certain to hear,

The sky is lit up with fireworks so bright,

The ancient story that we like to recall

It tells the tale of a prince and his wife:

Homeward they went from a forest, they say;

Guiding them carefully, safely back home

So this is why we light many diyas,

“Happy Diwali,” everyone will cheer –
